I stand, by grace, on the di - vine throne of Je - sus Christ, my Lord and life!
Wal - low - ing in my night's slew of des - pond, Hav - ing sur - rend - ered the fight,
Un - to me came grac - ious right - eous - ness and Peace lift - ed me out of night
From whom the cow - er - ing cret - ins of death Slith - er off in - to the night!

Ne - ver could I, of my own vo - li - tion, Have crawled out of that foul night,
I was deep in the maw of ge - hen - na When I spied, there, a new light
In - to the arms of the Sav - ior, Je - sus, Who died for me to bring life!
He is the pow - er that chang - es wretch - es In - to His realm's shin - ing knights

But by the might of the Lord in my life I stand bask - ing in His light!
Com - ing to me out of realms un - known to Snatch me out of Sa - tan's bite!
Emp - ty the tomb of the One who brings me From death to e - ter - nal life!
Who see no light of them - selves but Je - sus, Who is the King of all light!
